

Subject Student attendance

Authors Keeler and others

Analyst Cristina Parra

Date February 24, 2025

Summary

Each student's parent receives an individual report explaining the student's performance on a state assessment during the previous school year. This bill requires the report to include the number and percent of days the student was absent from school the previous year.