

Subject Limiting regulations on residential development

Authors Nash and others

Analyst Chelsea Griffin

Date March 7, 2025

Summary

This bill would prohibit a municipality from requiring certain aesthetic conditions in a development that are not required by the State Building Code. Minimum square footage requirements are also prohibited.

The bill does not apply to a proposed residential development to be developed by the municipality itself.

Effective the day following final enactment.